REGULAR GIVING

"THEY'RE ANGELS HERE"

KEN ALLDAY, SPEAKING OF STAFF AND VOLUNTEERS AT ST CUTHBERT'S HOSPICE

Ken's wife Joan spent her last days at St Cuthbert's Hospice; she called it 'Next door to heaven'.

When Joan's time was very near, he was asked by our hospice to come to her. She was asleep and he squeezed her hand. She opened her eyes and said: "Hello mate, do you mind if I sleep for a couple of minutes?" She knew that was the end and he said "Yes, you go back to sleep, my love".

Ken says: "My wife died happy in St Cuthbert's Hospice. She died with a smile on her face. That makes all the difference to me. That's how much they cared for her."

"I now volunteer because of what they did for my wife. When Joan passed away, the care the hospice gave both of us was incredible. The hospice is still helping me. I want to pay them back for their care."

St Cuthbert's Hospice extends the same support and counselling to our patients as well as their families, friends and carers, because we know that illness affects whole families.

Regular gifts not only help to fund our work but they also allow us to plan our future care with confidence.
